Grand Lodge Dannebrog Grand President

Earlier this week I returned from another adventure – my first set of visitations to lodges; ones that meet on the first week of the month. I left on Wednesday, September 30, to drive to Fresno. Driving along Highway 20 past Clearlake, I saw some blackened trees and other vegetation, and my thoughts immediately went to those who have lost property and the animals affected by the wildfires. I arrived at Martha and Gunnar's house with a warm (just out of the oven) peach pie awaiting me. Yum! It's good to see Gunnar up and about after his stay in the hospital in September. I rode with them to the meeting, which began after a lunch of salad, lasagne, and pumpkin pie. Of course, Fresno is busy preparing for Convention 2016! I enjoyed visiting with members, especially seeing the Jensens, who haven't been able to travel to Ferndale lately. It had rained a little during the meeting. I spent another night at the Nielsen's (unplanned) before heading to Reno on Friday morning. Thank you, Martha and Gunnar, for your hospitality. I definitely enjoyed the visit and Martha's cooking!

I had to take the unscenic highways 99 and 5 to Reno in order to arrive on time for Reno's meeting. On the way, I checked in at Camp Norge near Alta – Dutch Flat to set out my sleeping bag on a bed in one of the little cottages knowing I would get back late. My timing was good, and I arrived just ahead of my counterpart, Tom. Wish I had known he was riding one of his motorcycles to the meeting! Anyway, it was good to see him. I was glad to see Ann-katherine and Baxter looking so well. What a feast we had before the meeting: appetizers, a main course, and dessert, everything with a German flair for Oktoberfest (including the beer, although Carlsberg was also available)! The Reno lodges present a Santa Lucia program at their Christmas party/meeting. I wish I could attend! Congratulations to Reno for gaining so many new members. I sat at the same table with some of them and very much enjoyed their company. I was extremely glad my bed was made at Camp Norge as I returned at midnight.

So far, the only colors of leaves I've seen have been shades of green and brown: the deep reddish brown of the seed pods of the redbud and the lighter brown of some of the deciduous trees. Some of the pines looked rather sad on the way to Reno with bunches of brown needles – like some of our redwoods at home. They're ready for some much-needed rain!

(To be continued next month.) I wish everyone a bountiful and happy Thanksgiving!

Med venlig hilsen,

Lynn Wachter, Grand President, Dannebrog

Grand Lodge Dania Grand President

I took a nice motorcycle ride up to Reno on the 2nd. All backroads, it took me 2 hours longer than going the direct route, but I wasn't in a hurry and I was really looking forward to seeing the fine folks in the Reno lodges. I arrived at the hall just as Glenn Fritz pulled up. I'd stopped at the Total Wine and Spirits store and picked up some of my favorite beer to share with the lodge. After all, it was Octoberfest. I had a terrific evening with more than 30 members of the Reno lodge. We had appetizers, we had beer, we had conversations about many things. Debbie brought a bottle of Jubileum from her last trip to Denmark. We drank most of it. I was thrilled to see Baxter looking good and Ann-katherine's incredibly warm smile. I had hoped they would be there because of all they've been through lately and it certainly made the trip worth while. I was pleased to see Lynn Wachter, Dannebrog Grand President in attendance as well. There was a brief meeting and then a grand selection of deserts to choose from. I finally headed for my motel room after 10:30. On the 3rd, I rode down the hill to Orangevale to visit the Scandinavian festival at Our Saviors Church. There was a variety of foods from each of the Scandinavian countries. There was music, there was dancing by the El Dorado Dancers and they invited the public to join them. I ate my first ever "Viking on a stick". I'm still not sure what it was, but it was good. Bob Schall was working in the kitchen and I helped Mary Jo and their daughter Jenny with the coffee and tea and did a bit of shopping myself. The baked goods table was so loaded when I arrived I thought they would have a lot left over. I was wrong. They sold out of everything. I bought some Rosettas to bring home to Gloria. I remember my Godfather making them for my family when I was young. The old memories came back. A highlight of the festival for me was meeting Tom Martin. No, I wasn't looking in the mirror or finding myself. Tom is a member of the El Dorado Dancers. We had a pleasant conversation and then he was back to dancing with the ensemble. Most said it was a good turnout, Leroy Larsen and Nadine were spotted having a bite to eat but there weren't many Dania members in attendance. We will have to get the word out to those in driving distance that this is an event worth travelling to.

Sunday the 4th brought Gloria and me to Orange Blossom Park in Oakdale to spend the day with the fine folks of Bornholm #14. Their annual picnic was a fun time for us and 20 of Modesto's members. We started the day with aebleskiver and bloody marys and a bit of Frisbee tossing with John Schuber. Brian Mefford took over the role of aebleskiver chef from Alvin Olsen and did a fine job. As the members arrived with their contributions to the pot-luck, the table grew crowded. John fired up the bbq and we had hamburgers and hotdogs with a variety of salads, chips and Johanne's beans. Johanne wasn't feeling well so she dropped off the beans and bbq and returned home to rest. She was missed. The day was perfect, not too hot, not too cold and the park is a beautiful site. We were all stuffed and then the deserts started coming out. It was a fine day and Johanne's son came by and picked up the equipment and we all headed home from a wonderful day with friends. Thank you to the fine members of Bornholm #14.

I'll be on the road to begin November with Solvang on the 4th, Fresno on the 5th, Reno on the 6th and up to Ferndale on the 7th. Hope to see you at one of these meetings!

Ser frem til at se dig.

The meeting went very well. The President appointed a committee for the Joint Installation in February. Both Kaj and Doug Mercer a bit under the weather but they will be back soon. Anne Gearhart was welcomed back and see is 95% recovered after setbacks. She was greeted warmly with much applause. Some who missed out on the attendance prize were Mary Beth Jensen (the new mother of twins), Erik Eichner, Darwin Dichmann, and Marissa Christensen. For dinner, we enjoyed pizza delivered and soon consumed. It was very good. Of course, there were appetizers galore (thanks to Johanne). Then we were truly regaled in song by our "young Danes". Here is a short list of the songs: "Og gid at det må gå ham vel" "Åh ja, ham kan vi li' " "Vi sejler op af Æen" "For han er så ung og så yndig ser han ud"

Reno's Oktoberfest potluck on the 2nd, was a great success. We had about 35 people enjoying all the wonderful German traditions. Sauerkraut & sausage along with other traditional potato dishes. For dessert we had Homemade Cheese cake made from scratch and I mean even down to the milk and the way it was processed. Swartzwalds Torte (Black Forrest cake) with cherries and of cause we had plenty of Spaten beer and Jubilærums snaps. What great food and desserts. Yum, Yum.

We were honored by the presence of the Grand Lodge Grand Presidents, Tom Martin from Dania and Lynn Wacher from Dannebrog. Neither one of them knew that the other one was going to be there, so they were both very surprised. Hope they enjoyed their visit as much as we did. We discussed our Thanksgiving potluck. Our October meeting at Britta Langes' was great. Lovely weather so we sat outside under the patio overhang.

Following a short meeting some of us sat around and visited and some went inside to play cards. This was our Harvest Potluck, which was wonderful with such an array of good food. Bente brought Danish Apple Cake for dessert. Thanks for a great time.

I had company from Denmark for a week and one of the highlights was the drive to Salinas to visit Birthrs' sister-in-law, Inger Rasmussen in her new location. We spent a hour with her that day.

On November 14 we will gather at my home for lunch. No need to bring anything as I will prepare lunch. Lisa McDaniel will bring the dessert. Following our meeting we will either play cards or maybe some games. So if you have a favorite game, please bring it.

Have a great Turkey Thursday.
